Memphis School of Excellence Teachers to Receive 2017 - 2018 Base Salary Increases

Memphis School of Excellence (MSE), one of the most successful charter school systems in Tennessee, has announced an increase in teacher base salaries for the 2017 – 2018 school year. This is the third consecutive year the Read Foundation Board of Directors has voted to increase the base salary for all teachers. Additionally, the board approved an increase in sports and activity compensations. “We want to reward our teachers at the highest level that a charter school’s budget can permit, and we aim to attract the most highly effective teachers to MSE in order for them to experience the best academic environment possible,” said Executive Director Muhammet Turkey.

ABOUT MEMPHIS SCHOOL OF EXCELLENCE:

Memphis School of Excellence (MSE) is a tuition free public charter school serving grades 6-12 in Hickory Hill, Memphis area. MSE is one of the best performing charter schools in the state of Tennessee. Memphis School of Excellence programs currently serve sixth through twelfth grades with great success. Students in the program have a 100 percent graduation rate and 100 percent college acceptance rate. Memphis School of Excellence has the highest operational score card among all charter schools.
